Financial assistance available for schools and groups to experience The Discovery

– Donor-funded financial assistance available for rural schools and groups to support participation in The Discovery's programs –

(Reno, NV) – Thanks to the generous support of donors to the Terry Lee Wells Nevada Discovery Museum (The Discovery), the museum has financial assistance available to cover the cost of participation in the museum's programs for schools and groups from Nevada's rural communities.

Financial assistance is available for participation in a number of The Discovery's programs:

Museum Overnights

The Discovery's overnight program is the perfect getaway for schools, scout troops, youth groups and families. When the museum closes for the night, the adventure begins! This program gives visitors an opportunity to participate in themed science activities focused on science, technology, engineering, art, and math (STEAM) concepts, and bunk down for the night in one of our ten interactive galleries.

Field Trips/Group Visits

The Discovery's field trip/group visit program provides the opportunity to explore the entire museum and includes an educator-led Discovery Lab activity. Discovery Labs are standards-aligned and connect classroom learning with Financial assistance can also cover the cost of transportation to and from The Discovery.

The Discovery's financial assistance program supports the educational needs of children, families, schools and groups that cannot afford the full cost of the museum's admission, camps, memberships, field trips, and other programs. Partial to full financial assistance is available based on eligibility. An application for assistance with a $25 fee is required (the $25 fee will be applied to the total cost of the programming activity, if approved, or returned if the request is denied).
