

MEDIA ADVISORY – VIDEO & PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

THE DISCOVERY & RENOWN TEAM UP FOR LARGER-THAN-LIFE HEART HEALTH EXHIBIT Traveling, Walk-Through Exhibit Part of Heart Month Focus on Community Education & Awareness

WHAT:

In honor of American Heart Month, Renown Institute for Heart & Vascular Health and Terry Lee Wells Nevada Discovery Museum are working together to welcome the MEGA Heart – the world's only inflatable, walk-through heart exhibit.

WHEN:

Media preview of exhibit
Thursday, February 16, 2 p.m.

WHERE:

Terry Lee Wells Nevada Discovery Museum
490 S. Center Street, Reno

DETAILS:

This will be the MEGA Heart's first time visiting the Silver State. This incredible exhibit allows people of all ages to step inside the human heart – exploring and interacting with an inflatable heart that measures 13 feet high by 15 feet wide and 26 feet long.

Inside the MEGA Heart, you can follow the blood flow pattern and learn about diseases, defects and common treatment options. This larger-than-life exhibit is part of Renown Health's focus on heart month – working to educate our community about improving heart health by reducing risk factors and living heart healthy.

Get a sneak peek inside the MEGA Heart with Renown Institute for Heart & Vascular Health's medical director ahead of the public exhibit on Friday and Saturday, February 17 and 18.
