The Discovery invites attendees to explore the science of comics April 16

RENO, Nev. (April 8, 2022) – The Terry Lee Wells Nevada Discovery Museum (The Discovery) is exploring the science of comics at the next installment of its Social Science series on Saturday, April 16 from 7 to 10 p.m. The event invites attendees to make their favorite comic characters' costume or mask, participate in comic trivia, show their allegiance to Marvel or DC, find out which superpower they have by detecting their aura and much more.

Social Science is The Discovery's wildly popular adults-only, brain-building event series that features live science demonstrations, hands-on labs, expert presentations, music, beer and wine, as well as food provided by Savor Reno Sparks.

There are two other events in the 2022 Social Science series: Pride in June, and True Crime in September.

Tickets are $20 for members, $25 for nonmembers in advance and $30 at the door. Admission includes two drinks and complimentary tasty bites. Must be 21 years or older to attend. Visit nvdn.org for more information.

Social Science is presented with support from Guild Mortgage, Geologica Geothermal Resource Solutions, KRNv and KRXI. Additional support is provided by IMBIB Custom Brews, Savor Reno Sparks, and Breakthru Beverage of Nevada.
