

Social Science: True Crime

The Discovery invites attendees to put their sleuthing skills to the test at this tantalizing event Sept. 10

RENO, Nev. (Aug. 30, 2022) – Die-hard true crime enthusiasts can satisfy their morbid curiosities in the latest installment of Social Science at the Terry Lee Wells Nevada Discovery Museum (The Discovery) on Saturday, Sept. 10 from 7 to 10 p.m.

Social Science is The Discovery's wildly popular adults-only, brain-building event series that features live science demonstrations, hands-on labs, expert presentations, music, beer and wine, as well as tasty bites from Great Basin Brewing Co.

Social Science: True Crime invites attendees to investigate the science of death with a step-by-step presentation of the autopsy process from Dr. Laura Knight, indulge in a puzzling murder mystery, awaken their inner artist with blood spatter art and special effects makeup, test their true crime chops with trivia and wander through the spine-chilling Haunted House of the Dead, all while enjoying delicious treats and sips.

True Crime is the final event in the 2022 Social Science series. Tickets are available for purchase at nvdm.org.

Tickets are $20 for members, $25 for nonmembers in advance, and $30 at the door. Admission includes two drinks and complimentary tasty bites from Great Basin Brewing Co. Must be 21 years or older to attend. Visit nvdm.org for more information.

Social Science is presented with support from Guild Mortgage, Geologica Geothermal Resource Solutions, KRN News 4 and FOX11. Additional support is provided by IMBIB Custom Brews and Breakthru Beverage of Nevada.
